MEDIA ADVISORY

Senator Hardiman to meet with President Bush at the White House

Senator Bill Hardiman (R-Kentwood) and forty other elected African American leaders from across the United States will be visiting with President George W. Bush at the White House in Washington D.C. on Friday, February 28 at 12:00 p.m. The President will be hosting a lunch in celebration of Black History Month and to honor the many African Americans that have contributed so much to our country.

“I am grateful to be chosen as one of the forty individuals to meet with the President of the United States,” said Sen. Hardiman. “President Bush is an honorable man and a great leader who genuinely desires to address racial relations in America.”
